

RAWHIDE

RWH 1286

“SONG OF THE BANDIT”

Originally Hi Hat 5071

TIM MERINO
4619 Olive Highway
Oroville, CA 95966

Opener, Break, Close (Circle Left)

* Long, long ago in old Wyoming lived a maid

Fair as the sweetest flower blooming in the glade

Allemande your corner – Do Sa Do

Left Allemande that corner – Weave around you go

 Then far to west his voice comes ringing, riding a wild horse he comes singing

Swing and Promenade

He sang, “he le oh, yip ai oh lee, yip ai oh lee 'ay”

He brings a token of his love

Figure

Heads Square Thru – four hands will do

Go all the way and then you do the Right & Left Thru

Veer Left and then Couples Circulate one time

Chain Down the Line – go forward and you come on back

Star Thru – Pass Thru – Trade By and Swing

Swing and Promenade

He sang, “he le oh, yip ai oh lee, yip ai oh lee 'ay”

He brings a token of his love

Alternate lyrics for Break and Close

* One day he rode away but never to return

Danger was waiting now his love must ever yearn

 Every night when the moon comes shining, for her heart his love was pining

* One day an angel brought a message from her love

Told her he was waiting in the starlit sky above

 For straight down a moon beam he comes riding out of the sky on a winged horse gliding

Tag: He brings a token of his love